

Hollins University

Profile:

Private liberal arts women's college located in Roanoke. Undergraduate enrollment: under 1000. Named one of the "Best 371" Colleges by Princeton Review. Prestigious, nationally recognized program in creative writing. Other strong programs include visual and performing arts, psychology, biology/premed, political science, and communication studies. A January "Short Term" enables students to intern, study abroad, or engage in independent study. Championship intercollegiate equestrian program. Student/teacher ratio: 10:1.

Guaranteed Admission Requirements:

Graduate with a transfer-oriented associate degree and a GPA of 2.5+. Letter of recommendation required from GCC transfer counselor, administrator or instructor.

Application Deadline:

Fall: July 1

Spring: November 15

Application Fee:

Waived for GAA students.

Application for Admission:

<http://www.hollins.edu/admissions/apply/apply.htm>

Academic Programs:

<http://www.hollins.edu/undergrad/undergraduate.htm>

Financial Aid:

<http://www.hollins.edu/admissions/transfer/financial/index.shtml>

[Note: 98% of Hollins students receive some form of financial aid which includes Academic Excellence Transfer Awards].

Transfer Guide:

<http://www1.hollins.edu/Registrar/registrar.htm>

[Click on "Transfer Guide: Virginia Community Colleges"]

Catalog:

<http://www1.hollins.edu/Registrar/body.htm>

Tuition:

2010-2011: $28,910. Room & Board: $10,200. Total: $39,110.

Contact:

Amanda Barnhart, Transfer Admissions Counselor

1-800-456-9595 or 1-540-362-6401

abarnhart@hollins.edu

Updated May, 2010