Preventing Sexual Assault.

This notice is about an event which occurred at the University of Mary Washington.

A student at the University of Mary Washington in Fredericksburg has provided the following image to local law enforcement to assist in the apprehension of a rape suspect.

The assailant is described as a white male, “buzz type” haircut, “tribal design” tattoo on left arm. 20-24 years of age, about 5’5” tall, soft high-pitched voice. He was wearing a green t-shirt and jeans. The criminal event occurred on Friday, October 3, 2008. Contact the UMW PD with any information 540-654-1025.

Protect yourself and act responsible. Some things you can do to protect yourself:

- Be aware of your surroundings
- When possible, travel with a friend or as part of a group
- Be aware of locations/situations which would make you vulnerable
- Stay in well-lit areas

Germanna has large parking lots. Request an escort from the security staff if you find yourself walking alone after dark. Look up and around as you walk. Have keys ready.

If you feel unsafe going to or being near your vehicle or outside the building, return to the building and get an escort. And finally, report any suspicious activity to the security desk or college telephone operator.
